

TRAUMA SYMPOSIUM

HUNTINGTON CONVENTION CENTER

SEPTEMBER 25

2023

WELCOME

Thank you for your interest in the 13th annual Northern Ohio Trauma System (NOTS) Symposium. This offering is NOTS's most enduring illustration of our regional healthcare systems, collaboration to address the educational needs of trauma care providers of all levels. As we arranged last year, with the assistance of Colortone Audio-Visual, this single day event will be held at the Huntington Convention

Center's Global Center for Health Innovation in downtown Cleveland with the option to attend virtually as well. Our symposium committee has once again assembled an excellent program of diverse topics from regional and national experts in trauma care, including our keynote lecturer, Dr. Kenji Inaba, Chief of Trauma, Emergency Surgery and Surgical Critical Care at LAC+USC Medical Center. He will provide unique perspective and insights from his experience at one of the largest and busiest trauma centers in North America. We will also be privileged to hear the courageous story of recovery and resilience from trauma survivor, Ms. GERALYN RITTER, a survivor of a train derailment. Finally, I would like to recognize and thank our NOTS staff, Ms. Danielle Rossler, Ms. Sara Arida, and Mr. Tod Baker, for their efforts in organizing this important annual CME event, as well as our sponsors without whom we could not provide it. We hope you chose to attend our symposium, whether in-person or virtually, and find it as valuable as so many other attendees have over the last dozen years.
